Mike Iaconelli

The 2003 Bassmaster Classic champion, as well as the 2006 Toyota Tundra Angler of the Year, Ike is one of the new breed of professional BASS anglers who is changing the sport with his exciting style and ability to catch lots of big fish.

Take-a-Vet Fishing

TAKE A VET FISHING was created to give back to those who serve our great nation every day. The mission is simple, to show these men and women how much they mean to us. Our slogan is "A day of giving back" and that is the core of our mission.

Dry Hootch

Helping veterans who survived the war survive the peace. Dryhootch is a nonprofit organization formed to help Veterans returning home. It was envisioned as a place where Veterans could gather informally in a safe place and interact with the community as a whole.

Fishidy

The fastest growing online fishing community, featuring GPS mapping technology, catch management, and social networking, helping anglers of all abilities maximize their fishing potential. Not only is Fishidy effective, it's fun! Connecting with new buddies and waterways exposes members to continuously updated, real-time fishing reports for use next time they're on the water.
